Removed from the Circuit Court

MOTION TO STAY AND FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO ANSWER, MOVE OR OTHERWISE RESPOND TO THE COMPLAINT AND BRIEF ON BEHALF OF DEFENDANTS IN SUPPORT THEREOF

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This putative class action was electronically filed in the Circuit Court of Pike County, Alabama on January 22, 2008 and removed to this Court on February 21, 2008. The Plaintiff John D. Swindall seeks to represent a putative class that “consists of every individual and citizen of the State of Alabama, who at any point and time took the prescription drug known as ‘VYTORIN,’ from the date of its release in 2004 through present.” Complaint ¶ 2. The Complaint alleges that Plaintiff took VYTORIN, “in the method and manner prescribed by his physician and the Defendants, and thereafter, suffered from severe, debilitating and life-endangering difficulties, including heart disease, et al.” Id. ¶ 9. Based on these and other allegations, Plaintiff claims that the Defendants are liable for “negligence, wantonness, breach of contract, breach of warranty, product liability, strict liability, fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, suppression, battery, wrongful death, outrage, and conspiracy, as the facts warrant and as the law may allow.” Id. ¶ 11. This case is one of scores of class actions involving the prescription medicine VYTORIN filed around the country since January 15, 2008.

On March 27, 2008, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (the “Panel”) will hold a hearing on the motions seeking centralization of such putative class actions pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407. See Feb. 13, 2008 United States Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation Hearing Session Order (attached hereto as Exhibit A).

In the interests of judicial economy, and to avoid any potential prejudice arising from the need to litigate similar issues in many different forums, the Defendants respectfully request that the Court enter an Order staying proceedings pending the decision of the Panel on centralization and transfer of the VYTORIN cases to a multidistrict litigation (“MDL”) proceeding. The Defendants also request an extension of time within which to answer, move or otherwise respond to the Plaintiff’s Complaint. Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1). Plaintiff’s counsel, Richard E. Crum, of Shealy, Crum & Pike, P.C., has agreed to allow these Defendants additional time to respond to Plaintiff’s Complaint.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

I. THE COURT SHOULD STAY THIS ACTION PENDING A DECISION ON CENTRALIZATION AND TRANSFER

This Court should exercise its discretion to stay all further proceedings in this action pending its likely transfer to an MDL proceeding. The power to stay an action is “incidental to the power inherent in every court to control the disposition of the causes on its docket with economy of time and effort for itself, for counsel, and for litigants.” Landis v. N. Am. Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254 (1936). When considering whether to grant a motion to stay pending possible transfer to an MDL proceeding, district courts generally consider three factors: (1) potential prejudice to the non-moving party; (2) hardship and inequity to the moving party if the action is not stayed; and (3) the judicial resources that would be saved by avoiding duplicative litigation if the cases are in fact consolidated. See Gonzales v. Gen. Motors Corp., No. C07-2580 (TEH), 2007 WL 2406871, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 20, 2007); see also Mathis v. Bristol-Myers Squibb Co., No. Civ. A. 03-0308, 2003 WL 1193668, at *1 (E.D. La. Mar. 12, 2003).

As to the first issue – prejudice to the Plaintiff – the Plaintiff’s counsel, Richard E. Crum, of Shealy, Crum & Pike, P.C., has agreed to stay this matter pending the decision of the Panel on centralization and transfer of the VYTORIN cases to a multidistrict litigation (“MDL”) proceeding. This action is in its infancy, Plaintiff has expended limited resources to date, and no discovery has taken place. Any delay is likely to be relatively short. As discussed above, the Panel is set to consider the pending motions for centralization and transfer on March 27, 2008. Of the 17 motions that were the subject of the last Panel hearing on November 29, 2007, 13 (76%) were decided within a month and the remainder shortly thereafter.¹ Thus, Plaintiff will not suffer prejudice as a result of a stay.

Fair Labor Standards Act Litig., MDL No. 1892, 2008 WL 160637 (J.P.M.L. Jan. 3, 2008); In re Se. Milk Antitrust

As for the second consideration – hardship and inequity to the moving party if the action is not stayed – there can be little doubt that the Defendants will be prejudiced if they are forced “to litigate similar issues in . . . many different forums.” Conner v. AT&T, No. CV F 06-0632 (AWI DLB), 2006 WL 1817094, at *4 (E.D. Cal. June 30, 2006); see also Am. Seafood, Inc. v. Magnolia Processing, Inc., Civ.A. Nos. 92-1030, 92-1086, 1992 WL 102762, at *2 (E.D. Pa. May 7, 1992) (“The duplicative motion practice and discovery proceedings demonstrate that judicial economy and prejudice to the defendants weigh heavily in favor of a stay.”).

Finally, and perhaps most significantly, a stay pending the Panel decision will save judicial resources by avoiding litigation that may prove entirely duplicative. As the Conner court explained:

During the time this action is awaiting a ruling from the Panel, the court may well be forced to decide whether to allow Plaintiffs to amend their complaint, address Defendants’ . . . possible dismissal motions, and resolve potential discovery issues. . . . [I]f these actions are coordinated by the Panel, the MDL court hearing the coordinated cases will decide many of dismissal and discovery issues that this court may be asked to address in the next several months. A stay will better ensure uniform decisions on pretrial matters in these cases. A stay will also conserve judicial resources because only one court may need to make such rulings.

2006 WL 1817094, at *3-4; see also U.S. Bank, Nat’l Ass’n v. Royal Indem. Co., No. CIV.A.3:02-CV-0853-P, 2002 WL 31114069, at *2 (N.D. Tex. Sept. 23, 2002) (noted in granting Defendant’s motion for a stay, “[i]f the MDL motion is granted, all of the Court’s time, energy, and acquired knowledge regarding the action and its pretrial procedures will be wasted.”).

Litig., MDL No., 1899, 2008 WL 154608 (J.P.M.L. Jan. 7, 2008); In re Marine Hose Antitrust Litig. (No. II), No. MDL 1888, 2008 WL 194389 (J.P.M.L. Jan. 23, 2008).

II. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO ANSWER, MOVE OR OTHERWISE RESPOND TO THE COMPLAINT

In light of the pending motions for centralization and transfer to an MDL proceeding, the Defendants respectfully request that the time within which they may answer, move or otherwise respond to the Complaint be extended to either (a) a date to be set at the first scheduling conference after the Panel issues its decision (if the Court is inclined to grant a stay), or (b) thirty days from the date of the Court's resolution of this motion (if the Court is not so inclined). Given the avalanche of Complaints filed in district courts across the country in the last three weeks, and the very real possibility that these Complaints will become redundant if a Master Complaint is filed in the context of an MDL proceeding, the Defendants respectfully submit that judicial economy is best served by what will be a short extension of time.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Defendants respectfully request that the Court stay these proceedings pending a decision by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, and extend the time within which the Defendants may answer, move or otherwise respond to the Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

PROCEDURES FOR ORAL ARGUMENT BEFORE THE
UNITED STATES JUDICIAL PANEL ON MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

All oral argument is governed by the provisions of Rule 16.1 of the Rules of Procedure of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (effective April 2, 2001). Rule 16.1(g) allows a maximum of twenty minutes for oral argument in each matter. In most cases, however, less time is necessary for the expression of all views and the Panel reserves the prerogative of reducing the time requested by counsel. Accordingly, counsel should be careful not to overstate the time requested for oral argument.

The Panel insists that counsel limit all oral argument to the appropriate criteria. See generally In re “East of the Rockies” Concrete Pipe Antitrust Cases, 302 F. Supp. 244, 255-56 (J.P.M.L. 1969) (concurring opinion) (discussion concerning criteria for transfer).

Rule 16.1 is duplicated in its entirety hereafter for your convenience.

RULE 16.1: HEARING SESSIONS AND ORAL ARGUMENT

(a) Hearing sessions of the Panel for the presentation of oral argument and consideration of matters taken under submission without oral argument shall be held as ordered by the Panel. The Panel shall convene whenever and wherever desirable or necessary in the judgment of the Chairman. The Chairman shall determine which matters shall be considered at each hearing session and the Clerk of the Panel shall give notice to counsel for all parties involved in the litigation to be so considered of the time, place and subject matter of such hearing session.

(b) Each party filing a motion or a response to a motion or order of the Panel under Rules 7.2, 7.3, 7.4 or 7.6 of these Rules may file simultaneously therewith a separate statement limited to one page setting forth reasons why oral argument should, or need not, be heard. Such statements shall be captioned "Reasons Why Oral Argument Should [Need Not] Be Heard," and shall be filed and served in conformity with Rules 5.12 and 5.2 of these Rules.

(c) No transfer or remand determination regarding any action pending in the district court shall be made by the Panel when any party timely opposes such transfer or remand unless a hearing session has been held for the presentation of oral argument except that the Panel may dispense with oral argument if it determines that:

- (i) the dispositive issue(s) have been authoritatively decided; or
- (ii) the facts and legal arguments are adequately presented in the briefs and record, and the decisional process would not be significantly aided by oral argument.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Panel, all other matters before the Panel, such as a motion for reconsideration, shall be considered and determined upon the basis of the papers filed.

(d) In those matters in which oral argument is not scheduled by the Panel, counsel shall be promptly advised. If oral argument is scheduled in a matter the Clerk of the Panel may require counsel for all parties who wish to make or to waive oral argument to file and serve notice to that effect within a stated time in conformity with Rules 5.12 and 5.2 of these Rules. Failure to do so shall be deemed a waiver of oral argument by that party. If oral argument is scheduled but not attended by a party, the matter shall not be rescheduled and that party's position shall be treated as submitted for decision by the Panel on the basis of the papers filed.

(e) Except for leave of the Panel on a showing of good cause, only those parties to actions scheduled for oral argument who have filed a motion or written response to a motion or order shall be permitted to appear before the Panel and present oral argument.

(f) Counsel for those supporting transfer or remand under Section 1407 and counsel for those opposing such transfer or remand are to confer separately prior to the oral argument for the purpose of organizing their arguments and selecting representatives to present all views without duplication.

(g) Unless otherwise ordered by the Panel, a maximum of twenty minutes shall be allotted for oral argument in each matter. The time shall be divided equally among those with varying viewpoints. Counsel for the moving party or parties shall generally be heard first.

(h) So far as practicable and consistent with the purposes of Section 1407, the offering of oral testimony before the Panel shall be avoided. Accordingly, oral testimony shall not be received except upon notice, motion and order of the Panel expressly providing for it.

(i) After an action or group of actions has been set for a hearing session, consideration of such action(s) may be continued only by order of the Panel on good cause shown.
